Students prepare to make

There are many curricular programs which help to make the students' dreams come true. Under the leadership of Mr. J. E. Sparks, SEMINAR provides a reading program on philosophic thought highlighted by weekly discussion periods. FLES, Foreign Language in Elementary School, is a revolutionary plan first initiated by Dr. Robinson. Begun five years ago, this long range idea will give students an opportunity to study foreign language for a maximum of twelve years. WORK EXPERIENCE gives the student the opportunity to gain knowledge of the business world while earning school credit. Through the efforts of Mr. Max Glass, the results of this program have proven exceptionally worthwhile. New this year is the PRINCIPAL'S HONOR LIST which gives recognition at graduation to those seniors who have maintained a 3.1 average or better throughout their high school careers. Certain capable students in the ADVANCED PLACEMENT program have the chance to earn college credit while taking required high school courses. Credit is awarded if high scores are earned on the standard test given at the end of the year.

European Summer Session

The 1964 Beverly Hills High School Summer Session Abroad was a trip to remember. Twenty-four students proficient in French participated in the study session which took them to England, France, Switzerland, Austria, and Italy. The main portion of the trip was spent at Nantes, France, where each student lived with a French family and attended school at the European Institute. Climaxing this session was the students' production of Jean Anouilh's "Rendez vous de Senlis." All those involved shared an unforgettable experience, visiting such world famous cities as Rome, London, and Paris. It was indeed a memorable trip.

Beverly earned fourth place in the Invitational Tourney.

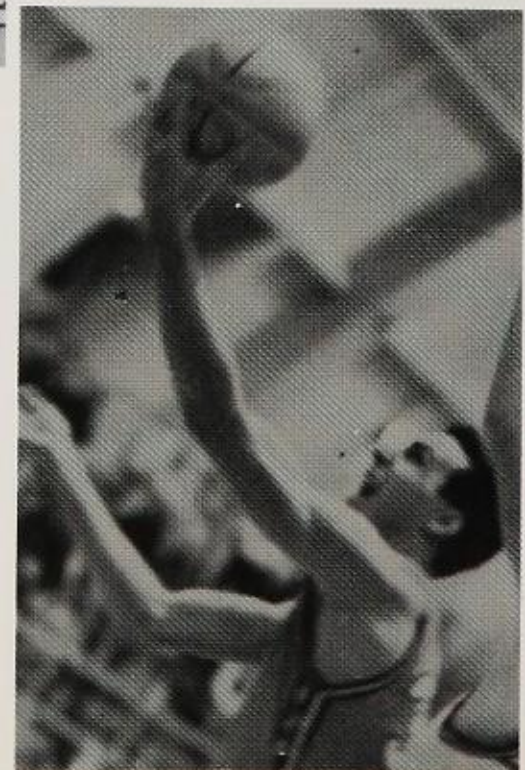

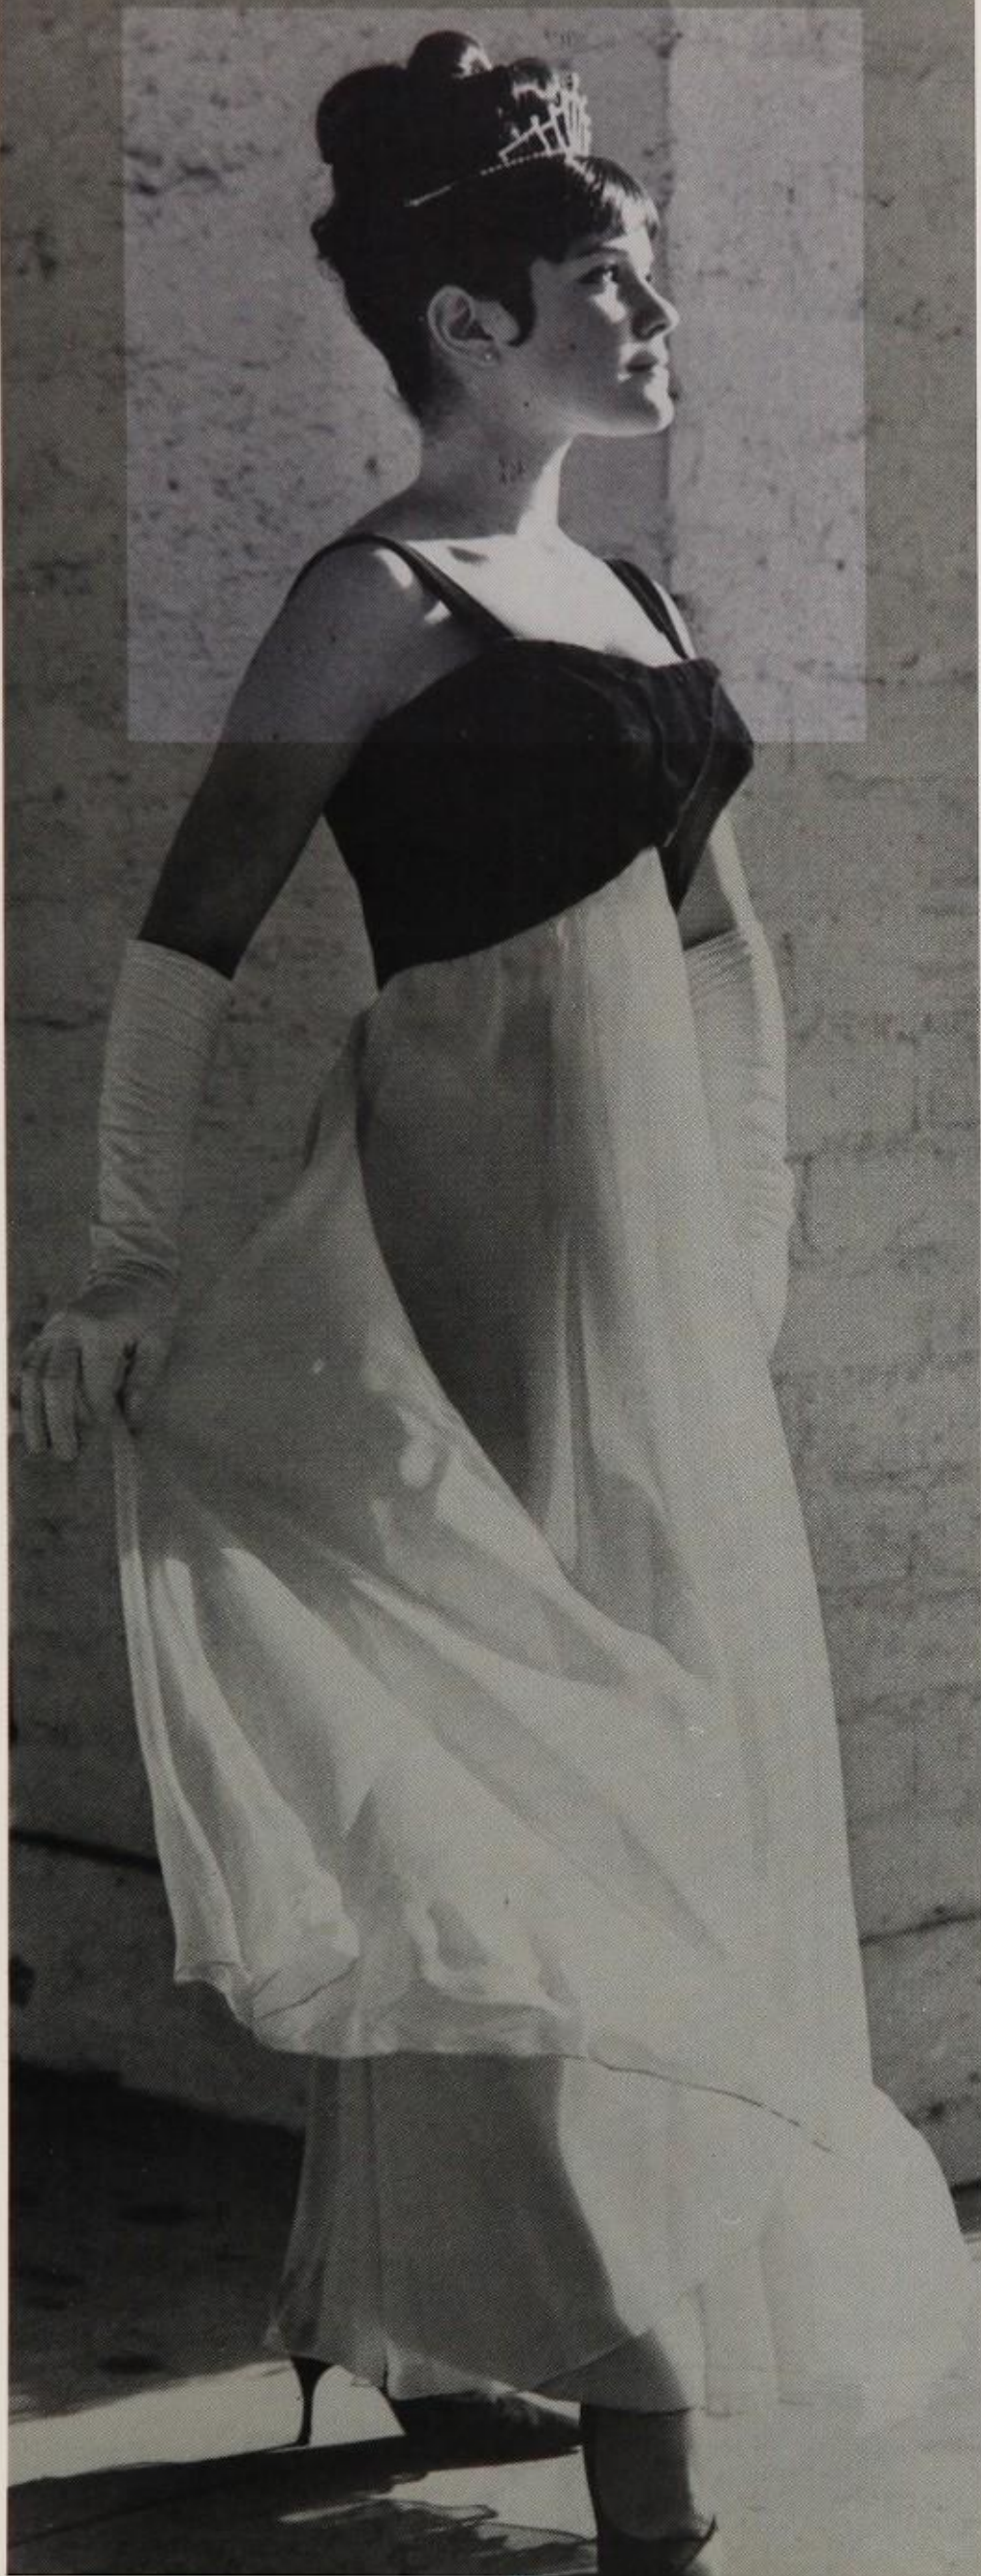

For the first time in Beverly's history, the queen and her court were chosen in a final election after each class had nominated candidates in a school-wide primary. Reigning over the tourney were Queen Julie Cobb escorted by Larry Bishop, Senior princess Mary Fran Alling with Bob Murphy, Junior princess Diane Stanly with Larry Levine, Sophomore princess Jill Godfrey with Jon Reinis and Freshman princess Wendy Gray with Roger Gordon.

One of the best high school basketball tournaments in the nation, the Beverly Hills Invitational is a true highlight of the year. Garnering top position in the tourney was CIF powerhouse, Redondo, led by the Most Valuable Player, Bob Clemo. Sandy Marks became the first Norman cager in four years to earn All-Tournament First Team honors.

A memorable, dramatic evening was experienced by all who attended the fall play, "U.S.A." The cast included LARRY BISHOP, ALBERT EINSTEIN, RICHARD DREYFUSS, RONALD SHURIN, JUDY FRANKLIN, JULIE COBB, and KATHY GRAY. Production supervision was in the capable hands of Nancy Askanase, Steve Afflecks, Melinda Cummings, Linda Jassim, Dee Dee Lusk, Pamela Shoop, and Marcel Smets. THE STAGE CREW, headed by STAGE MANAGER, MIKE GRUENBAUM, included Joel Baraze, Sam Callner, Allen Caplan, William Harris, Mike Lerner, Robert Medley, and Robert Prezant. Most unusual and dramatic lighting was controlled by Michael Mast and Richard Shaw. Howard Immerman, Jerry Napp, Steve Marlowe, Ron Pinskey, Ross Snyder, Carl Switzky, and Jon Teicher handled the complicated sound. In the Design Area those involved were as follows: STAGE DESIGN—Thomas Hillman, Barbara Kap, Roni Klase, Lois Levine, Robert Murphy, Leonie Rozier, Paul Siskin, and Steve Walter. Early in May our auditorium was transformed into a delightful Shakespearean fairyland for the performance of "Midsummer-Night's Dream." Directed by John Ingle and staged by Rex Faubion and Lyle Suter, the play was a tremendous success with all audiences. Joan Allemand supervised the program brochure designs; William Corrigan, make-up; Sibyl Line, wardrobe; Don Walker, sound; Ruth Wheeler, departmental promotion; Romaine Pauley, ushers and supervisors; John Marrow, parking; Marie Goetz, tickets; Kenneth Gelms, publicity; and Arnita Albright, lobby display.

"Norman Guides and Dolls" was one of Beverly's greatest shows

"Be a Clown" is one of the all-parent production numbers that was featured in the March 12 parent-student-faculty variety show and PTA fund-raiser, "Norman Guides and Dolls." Shown in full regalia for the number are the following: TOP ROW: Mmes. Joni Erenberg, director of the number; Evelyn Green, Elena Gaggiano, Gladys Cole, co-chairman of the group; Bettye Resnick, Janet Salter, Sally Cohn. MIDDLE ROW: Mmes. Norita Moss, Shirley Freeman, Ethel Booth, Frances Gilbert, Esther Smith. BOTTOM ROW: Mmes. Tillie Spiegel, Evelyn Canter, Beverly Gaffin. Ted Post, a high school father, was the over-all director of the parents' segment. Mrs. Harold Karton was the ways and means chairman, assisted by Mrs. Michael Braun.

John Schimmel, bass; Elliot Sacks and Joe Shaub swing in their act as Joe and Elliot.

Harriet Steinbaum sings about "People."

Hearts tuned in on the Knight's-Squire's Valentine Ball

Amid red hearts and cupids, the Knights and Squires presented the Valentine Ball at the Friars' Club on February 12. Normans danced to the music of Michael Page from nine to midnight, while the queen reigned over the evening's festivities.

Enchantment reigned at the Alpha-Adelphian's Camelot Ball

The beautiful story of Camelot became the theme of this year's Alpha-Adelphian dance. Traditionally, as a girl-ask-boy dance, all young Guineveres had the chance to ask their favorite Sir Lancelots to the ball which took place at the elegant Ambassador Hotel on March 19.

The initial assembly of the year was a commemoration of Veteran's Day. Under the direction of Mr. Allen Klotz, these talented forensic students spoke—Robert Kislinger, Robert Post, Nate Halprin, Harriet Steinbaum, Richard Brenner, Neal Spiegel, Diane Rosenbaum.

On Thanksgiving the fine young choir from Albion Street School sang for our student body. After the assembly the young singers enjoyed lunch in our cafeteria.

Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving and

The beautiful Christmas assembly was a presentation of "Amahl and the Night Visitors." Judy Blanc (right) sang with Dee Dee Sims, Greg Finley, Chuck Bergman, and Bob Sherock. The entire theatre arts and music departments achieved another outstanding performance. Beverly thanks Mr. Holmes, Mr. Ingle, and Mr. Wright.

Each year at Christmas time, Normans visit our little sister school, Albion Street. Traditionally, the Fall Student Body President dons the garb of "jolly old Saint Nick" and entertains the children. Santa Claus this year was Ed Phillips, shown here listening to the whispered hopes of one of the little girls.

Christmas . . . great assemblies and Albion Street gaiety.

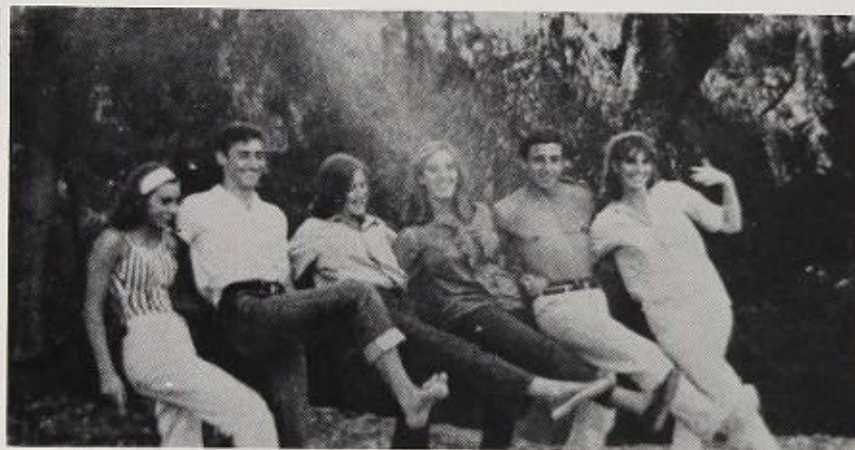

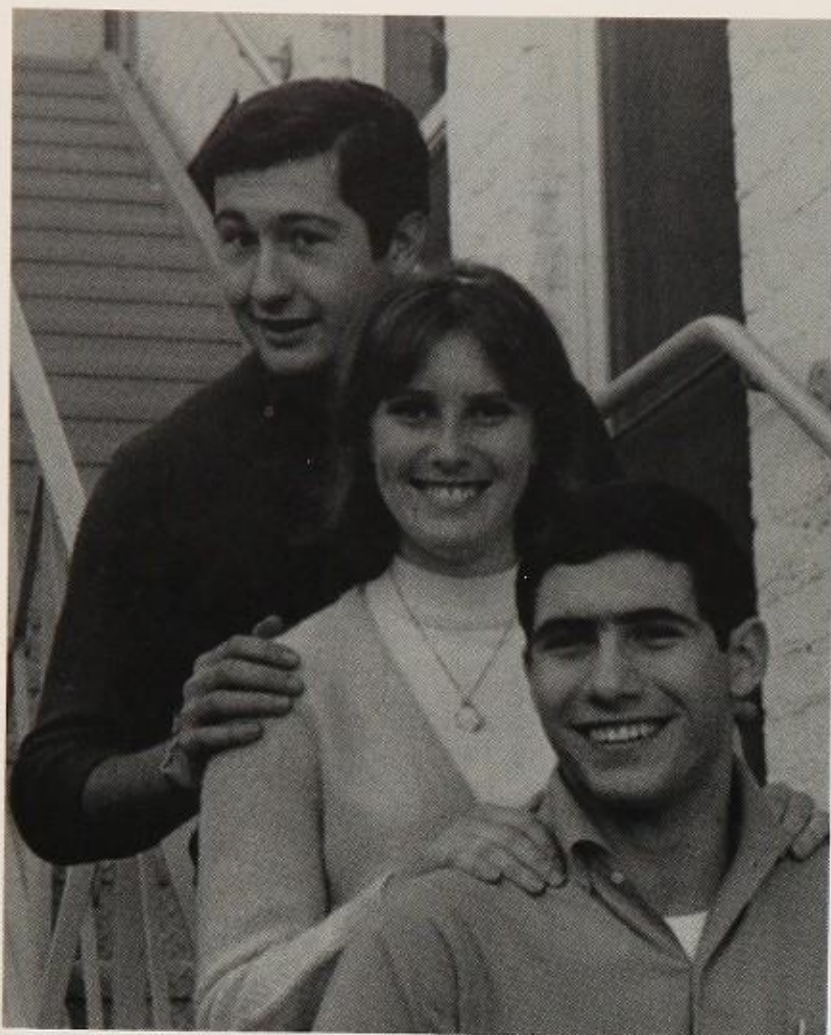

Since 1927 the Girls' and Boys' Leagues have sponsored a drive to raise money for Albion Street. Blue Chip Stamps furnish gifts such as books, tape recorders, or record players for our sister school. The children also receive individual presents of toys and holiday sweets.

Happiness is a Christmas party at Albion Street School.

Dedicated to extending the bonds of friendship, the exchange students spend a year in their adopted countries.

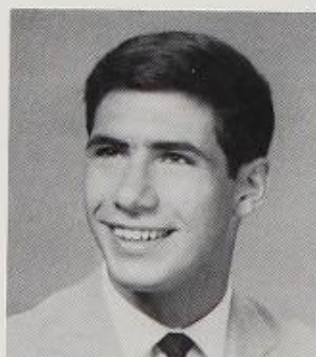

While Nancy Treusch lived in Argentina as an AFS student, she wrote home: "One of the grandest highlights of my trip and greatest satisfaction of my AFS experience will be my returning and sharing my new ideas, hopes, and ideals with all of you. If I can just be one link adding to the forces uniting the peoples of all the world. I'll feel that I've quite successfully fulfilled my duty as an AFSer. I want to thank all of you with all my heart for giving me the incredible opportunity to grow and mature as a person, and to extend and exchange love, hopes, problems, and prayers with people of another country. Thank you for your confidence."

In Marcel Smets' first speech to Beverly students he said, "I believe in the AFS program that understanding among young people of different nationalities must bring comprehension among the different nations of this earth." When Marcel Smets returns to Belgium, we trust he will have much of interest to relate to his friends.

When Andre Frossard arrived at Beverly he said, "I hope you will accept me for my differences as well as for the ways in which we are similar. Thank you, students, who have been kind to me. I hope to meet all of you in the weeks ahead." We hope Andre's months at Beverly have been all that he hoped for.

Among Beverly's main attraction for entertainment was our spectacular Jazz Night. This year's affair which took place in the middle of January, highlighted the exciting talents of Joe and Eddie. When this team came to Beverly, all those who attended their concert found themselves enticed and amazed at the mastery of American and foreign folk songs presented to them. The manner of conveying sounds to the audience enlightened all with the original harmony for which Joe and Eddie are noted. With folk song as the mood, the entire evening was one in which gaiety prevailed. The varied assortment of numbers created many different moods among the listeners.

ADMINISTRATION

The Beverly Hills Board of Education wants the best school system that can be built—a system of education that is second to no other in the country. The Board of Education believes that a superior individual scholastic achievement should be the rule rather than the exception in the Beverly Hills Schools. It expects genuine educational leadership from the school administration, and wants a teaching staff composed of distinctly superior individuals who will set high standards of achievement for all students.

The Board of Education desires that the program of education be such that it will challenge all students to achieve to the maximum of their abilities.

The Board of Education recognizes the paramount importance of health, citizenship, and character development. It believes that all school activities should be evaluated in terms of their contribution to the whole individual.

The Board of Education believes in self-discipline and freedom of choice for students as they are able to exercise these to the advantage of themselves and others. It believes, however, in a firm, positive correction rather than lax or evasive action in cases of failure in self-discipline.

The Board of Education believes that public school funds should be administered wisely. It expects that the entire personnel will cooperate to the end that school expenditures shall be consistent with sound principles of education and public finance.

Mr. Kenneth L. Peters, Superintendent of Schools speaks of achievement.

It has often been said that Beverly Hills Unified School District is a "lighthouse" district, one that lights the way through reasoned experimentation toward an unsurpassed educational program. If the elementary schools serve as the sturdy foundation, then certainly the high school is the beacon itself.

The achievements of our students and the success of our graduates sparkle brilliantly and beam lucid evidence of the soundness of our educational program. We have come a long way since that light was lighted 50 years ago, but we have not reached any zenith. As long as man seeks out the illumination of truth to banish the darkness of ignorance, dedicated educators continually will seek new ways to strike the spark. As we stand at the outset of another 50 years, we know that this exciting age of unbelievable technological progress will demand more and more from the students if they are to be prepared for their destiny beyond the horizon.

Many years ago, a wise, old Japanese philosopher once said:
"Education is sometimes painful,
But pain makes man think.
Thought makes man wise,
And wisdom makes life
endurable."

Principal, Dr. F. Willard Robinson, outlines our responsibilities.

Believing his major function as Principal to be the gathering of a top staff which can operate in an ideal atmosphere, Dr. F. Willard Robinson has been able to administer a series of successful innovations in each of the five years since his arrival at Beverly Hills High School. Most recent of these is the experimental Independent Study Hall which will allow students the opportunity to obtain special academic aid. Beverly's Honor Program, new this year, will allow all deserving students to receive honors at graduation. Team Teaching is a system enabling the introduction of a wider range of ideas than is found in most high school classes.

At the start of this school year a committee from the California State Legislature met in this district to analyze our educational program. At the conclusion of this hearing one of their official spokesmen made an "on the record" statement. In essence he said that Beverly was an example of a local school system that should stand as an educational goal, a "lighthouse" of public education.

His use of the word "lighthouse" is significant. I see it not only as a compliment for all who share in the building of our school, but also as a responsibility and a challenge for the future. True to this responsibility we have marked new milestones again this year. New curriculum patterns, the establishment of a program leading to honors at graduation, extending advance placement opportunities, and exciting plans for the expansion and improvement of the physical plant are all examples of our vital forward looking program. But the success of our school will ultimately be measured by the stature of the individual human personality that emerges. Our goal is to send you forth as "heroic" men and women — to face life with courage and purpose and faith. This gives a head to human experience, a sense for living.

If you leave with the qualities of which I speak, you go forth in the image of "heroic" man, and we will have done our job successfully.

Harry Alter is Assistant Principal and Principal of Summer School

Beverly graduates of former years are now leaders in almost every business, profession, and in government. You will, in a few short years, take your place in the challenging life of our nation, our world and of our universe. Your total school experience is preparation so that you will not only be prepared to meet the competition found in life but can add your contribution in service, leadership, and creativity. One fine goal you can set for yourself is to demand that the world be a better place because you are here.

Through art and its appreciation the individual learns to understand the creative in all its forms and to recognize art as a force which has shaped the lives and destinies of mankind. The acquisition of a knowledge of definite, concrete, factual material on a broad, inclusive basis, is our hope for students who "pass through the portals" of the art department. Specifically, the department encourages individual creativity; exposes each student to the basic art skills and techniques; encourages quality, and individuality in results; and stresses the art of perception.

For students intent upon thoroughly equipping themselves for college Business Education majors, the high school preparatory courses in Accounting, Business Law, Shorthand, Typing, and Work Experience are invaluable. In addition these courses are designed to increase a general understanding of business procedure and technical ability for those interested in personal enrichment.

Students from this department move into the practical world better prepared to face and solve its problems. They are assisted in developing a sensitivity and appreciation of the world of business. Since its inception in 1960, the high school's work experience program has developed into a successful project which greatly influences the lives of many students.

Concerned with improving the individual and family well-being is the Home Economics Department. This department applies the knowledge available to nutrition, foods, textiles, clothing, household equipment, child development, family relationships, home management, and other aspects of living.

Home economics classes deal with subjects that have strong life-long appeal to most women. Here, too, the girls receive excellent preparation for homemaking.

Some five-hundred colleges and universities offer majors in home economics. The girl planning a career in home economics should plan her high school program to include chemistry and physics because these sciences are basic to many college home economics courses.

The major aims of the English Department encourage the student to think logically and clearly, to read objectively with maximum comprehension, and to write and speak both clearly and logically.

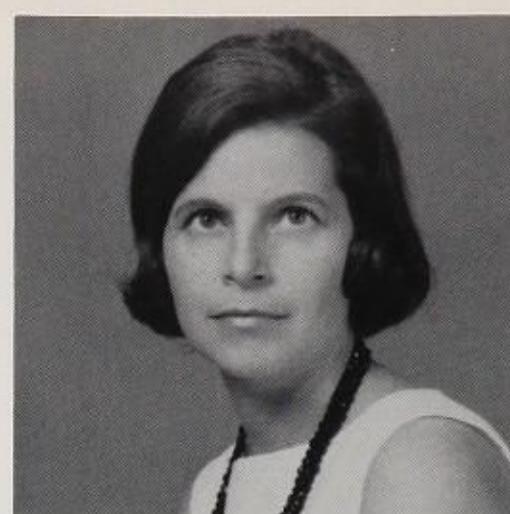

A recent addition to the department is the team teaching program. This program, which at Beverly involves the English and Social Studies Departments, utilizes two groups of teachers on staggered schedules during a two-period block of time. The instructing team plans, presents, and evaluates a course of study which will provide the student with the richest possible learning experience.

At various levels there are honor sections and a new emphasis leading to Advanced Placement Courses which include reading, discussion, and writing of themes on French literature and history.

The new approach to mathematics is a proven success

"Bribes will not be accepted."

"Precisely."

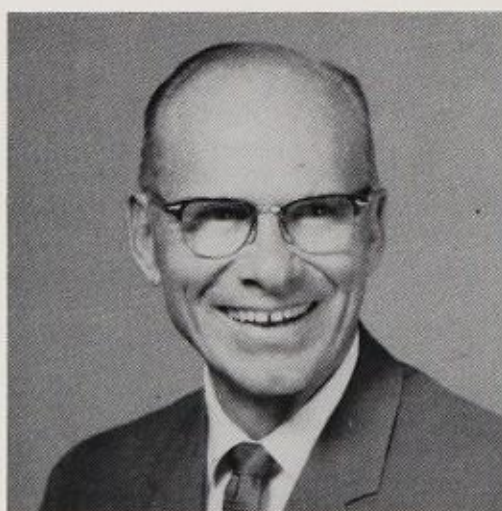

"Moebuis strip, rahl!"

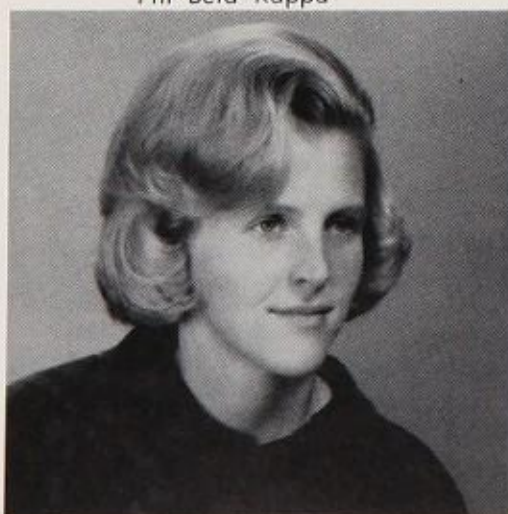

The courses of study offered by the Beverly Hills High School Mathematics department follow the recommendations of the College Board Commission on Mathematics. While our curriculum contains some topics that are relatively new to high school mathematics, the principal difference between our program and that of the traditional high school lies largely in the approach. In the study of each topic, the "why" is stressed as much as the "how." As a result of an accelerated program starting in the seventh grade, we now offer the gifted student the regular college freshman course in Calculus as an Advanced Placement course in the twelfth grade.

"Music as an Art exists only in time." If this is so, the performing arts cannot compromise with mediocrity, uninspired creativity, or non-communicative efforts. Where the development of the individual's potential personality and sensitivity are concerned we are pledged to spare no time or effort in helping the young musician to achieve full involvement through opportunities to create and re-create again and again the greatest musical experiences possible. Through the avenues of Voice Training, the Choir, the Orchestra, the Band, the Madrigal Singers, and the Minnesingers our Beverly Hills students are able to gain much-needed and sought-after benefits of fine performance.

Through the generosity of the administration in the purchase of new apparatus, the Science Department is now able to place precision equipment in the classroom, thus expanding the science offerings.

A Musser Copernicum Planetarium will demonstrate astronomical problems and solutions, showing the universe, galaxies, sun, moon, planets, and other components of the astronomical system. A new salt-water aquarium will allow students to study the ecology of marine life. A new autoclave will increase the time spent on bacteriological studies. New scalars will be used for isotope and radiation study in this space age.

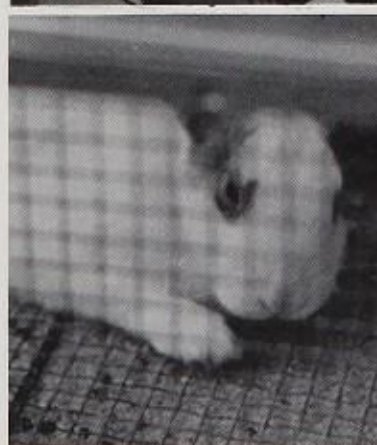

The continued up dating of Science equipment allows for individual and class enrichment of our modernized courses of study.

Social Studies develops the responsibilities of citizenship

Drawing from the academic disciplines of History, Geography, Political Science, Economics, and Sociology as a basis for most of the content of the Course of Study, the Social Studies Department aims to help students to learn how to think and to accept the responsibilities of citizenship in a free society. Ancient History, World History and Modern History provide a rich background in our cultural heritage. The experiment in team teaching, now in its third year, has been most successful in providing for a wide range of student abilities and interests through flexible scheduling. The project at the twelfth-grade level provides for maximum student participation with studies in depth in the fields of Government, Economics, and International Relations, with emphasis on current problems.

"It's those headaches again, doc!"

"Twist again!"

Few schools in the United States offer a physical education program beginning in the second grade under the direction of specialists as we do in Beverly Hills. The teachers are not only coaches; they are specialists in physical fitness development. The high school program includes physical fitness tests twice a year, weight training, health and first aid, instructional program in skills, and intramural competition. Approximately one out of every four boys participate in the interscholastic sports program.

Girls' P.E. is enhanced by variety

Being strongly aware of the specific values and resulting objectives of physical education, the department believes that individual sports should be stressed in the curriculum. Along with the required courses, each girl is given an opportunity to have experiences in several activities with a high recreational value. The general health and fitness of each girl is considered in the four-year plan as well as the daily lesson, which endeavors to increase strength and endurance as well as coordination, skill, and enjoyment in specific sports activities. It is believed that physical education, through a variety of planned activities, can and should aid each girl to gain a fuller understanding and appreciation of the world and to live in harmony with it as a healthy, active, well-informed, and skilled individual.

Technical Arts is that part of general education dealing with the technological advances of our industrial society. It provides an opportunity for exploration and self-discovery thus giving the background for a wiser selection of a college major. It is the practical application of mathematics and scientific principles as applied to the field of technology.

The various courses offered at Beverly are drafting, electronics, printing, and wood working. To future artists, doctors, engineers, and businessmen, technical arts offers an opportunity to test and develop their abilities and interests.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Beautiful Beverly High

Spring Student Council

The Fall ASB officers worked hard

The 1964 Fall Semester witnessed a change in student accomplishments. Never before has the student body presented such a challenge to its government for creative leadership and, at the same time, responded to this leadership with active participation. The interest in student government and its activities reached a high peak during the semester.

Political Emphasis Week, a new high school activity, stimulated the minds of the entire student body. Through the newly established student council reports, plans for a Pep Club and honor club standardization were initiated. The ASB Talent Exchange Program was a great success. Concluding the half-term was the performance of Joe and Eddie at Jazz Night: a truly memorable concert of song. Only by the support we received from the student body were these accomplishments made possible.

Special thanks should be given to the administration, Rena, Roger, and the entire student council who made my duties much easier. Thank you for all the wonderful experiences and lasting memories I will always have.

Ed Phillips

to make the semester a success.

Each day of the Fall Semester was an exciting experience for me as Student Body Secretary. By the initiation of an all-school scrapbook, I hope you, the Student Body, will be able to recall with fondness the activities that took place. Thanks to your support and participation, as well as your faith and confidence in our administration and capable cabinet you have helped to make this a very successful semester. My deepest appreciation, too, for the opportunity to serve you, the acquiring of new friendships — both of an understanding faculty and of a co-operative student body — and the memories of a challenging and exciting experience — one which I will never forget!

Rena Weissbrod

Sincere appreciation is extended to the members of the student body who have enabled me to accomplish a two-fold purpose as Student Body Vice-President. First, we have tried to modernize some of Beverly's traditional institutions. Second, and perhaps more important, we have endeavored to transform your ideas and desires into reality. For instance, as you displayed an expanded interest in student government, we have attempted to increase the rapidity and accuracy of elections by such measures as I.B.M. voting, election tags, and sample balloting.

I trust that your wishes have been correctly interpreted and that this semester has been as exciting and satisfying for you as it has been for me.

Under the leadership of President Richard Buck and sponsor, Mr. Roger Peterson, the Boys' League put out a pamphlet for freshmen so they could better understand Boys' League activities and committees. The Boys' League Log, edited by Jeff Gordon, was the league's first monthly newspaper. The Boys' League Junior Welfare Drive, coordinated by Tony Mohr and Larry Wohl, collected more money than ever before. The Bowling Tournament, organized by Jim Warsaw, was the most profitable one yet. Victor Cash did a terrific job in putting together one of Beverly's best Norman Newsreels. All in all, the Boys' League had an interesting and productive fall semester.

Beverly Hills girls picket the S.A.C.

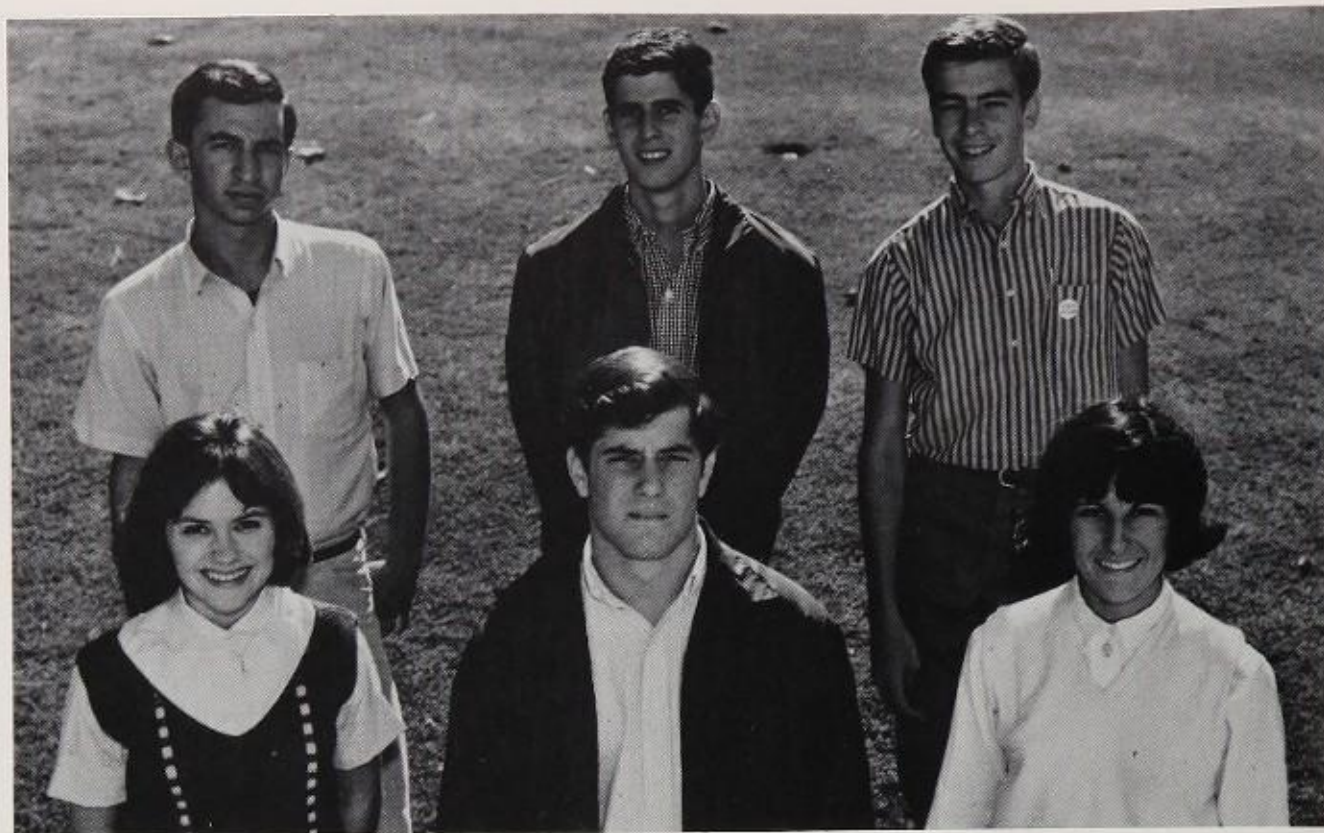

The Girls' League began the fall semester in an original way with a Big and Little Sister Get-Acquainted Picnic. After Orientation Day girls were shown to their classrooms. Then the League sponsored a fashion show displaying appropriate dress for school, athletic events, and dances. Hello Day was celebrated in the traditional manner, with the class song and friendliest couple contests. To introduce transfer students to Beverly, the League held a punch party and invited administrators and student leaders to speak. The traditional Halloween barbecue was given a new name and a new twist, as it was a Girls' League-Boys' League event called the Broomstick Barbecue. Christmas at Albion Street School was made merry with gifts brought from the League-sponsored Albion Street Drive. In addition, the busy League sponsored the "Beverly Belle," the Girl of the Month Contests, and two joint committee meetings.

Beverly girls helped Albion Street children have a Merry Christmas.

The Misses Yamado, Durocher, and Sullivan

Under the leadership of the Spring ASB Officers

Two years ago I mentioned that the true measure of school spirit could never be demonstrated by singing in the halls. Today, at the end of the spring semester, I feel even more strongly that I was right.

If you were asked, "What were the highlights of the spring semester 1965?", I'm sure most of us would remember a particular evening activity or perhaps an exciting basketball game. I consider myself extremely fortunate to have had the opportunity to serve you as your Associated Student Body President. Because of this opportunity, my answers are considerably different. I remember above all the times of planning and supervising the many school functions—from the painting of main hall posters to the marching in the rain for "Yes on Schools." It was here, as well as in the highlighted events, that I found my enthusiasms and satisfactions rewarded. Each of us achieved a great deal this semester through hard work and contributions to the many well-planned activities.

For a successful semester, a capable cabinet, an interested administration, and a responsive student body, I thank you.

David Goldman

Normans enjoyed a busy semester.

Being ASB Secretary has afforded me valuable experience and wonderful memories which I shall always carry with me. The spring semester was full of exciting activities which could not have been realized without your support and the help of the Student Council. Working with David and Lela was gratifying. For the privilege of being your ASB Secretary for spring, 1965, I thank you, the Student Body.

Judy Blanc

These past months as your ASB Vice-President have been among the most wonderful and rewarding of my life. The fact that David, Judy, and I were able to help to make your semester fun, the fact that we were able to make election procedures more efficient, and the fact that we could be of service to the community gave each of us so much pleasure. I sincerely hope you enjoyed the spring of 1965 as much as I Activities galore was the theme of the spring semester of the Girls' League. The Mother-Daughter Theatre party gave the mothers and daughters a chance to get together and see a highly enjoyable play. Proper grooming standards were presented to the students in a Girls' League Assembly while providing an amusing and interesting performance as well. Big and Little Sister plans were begun for the Fall of 1965 and a transfer student party prepared. A successful Cotton Day and fashion show also helped to highlight the semester while a Cabinet Exchange with Fairfax High School and a workshop for the Honor Scroll girls completed a rewarding year.

by the Spring Boys' and Girls' Leagues.

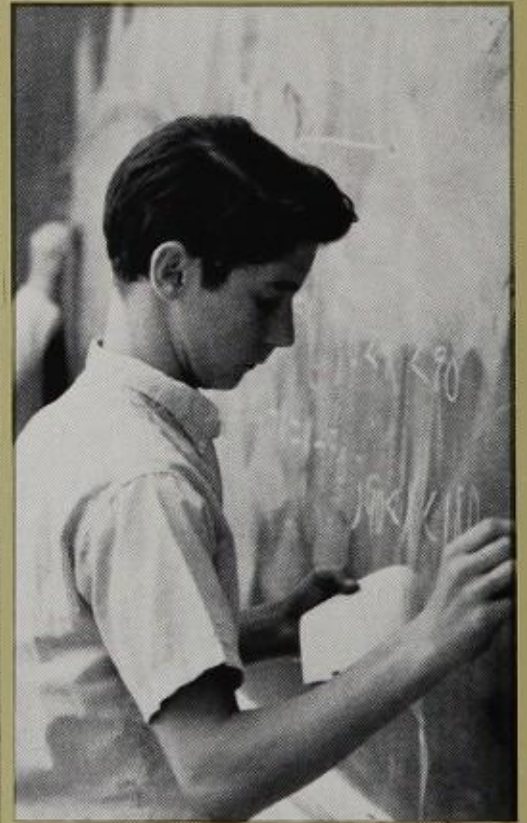

Headed by Chuck Bergman, the Spring Boys' League Cabinet had a highly active and successful semester in coordinating many of the school's activities. Under the supervision of Jim Frank, the Norman Newsreel worked to capture a pictorial review of the highlights of the semester. The various activities of the Boys' League were recorded in the Boys' League Log by Jim Warsaw. Interest in intramural sports was activated by Commissioner of Athletics Larry Sheridan and Sports Chairman Bob Warsaw. The Philanthropy Committee, directed by John Moore, visited an orphanage in the Valley. All members of the Boys' League, under the sponsorship of Mr. Roger Peterson, had a truly eventful semester.

To all our friends at Beverly
We sadly say goodbye.
We're really going to miss you—
Every gal and guy.
We're going to miss the faculty,
'Cause we really found them

When it came to teaching us,
They surely rang the bell.
Thanks to all our coaches
Who took our shapes pathetic
And turned us into bodies

We're proud of our

At good old Beverly,
The four years we have spent here were
Of worth infinitely.
We always will remember
Our colors white and green,
And all the work and fun we had Doing the Senior scene.
Our principal, Dr. Robinson,
Assistant, Mr. Alter
Have prepared us on for college
With steps that will not falter.
We promise to keep our standards high
In Beverly tradition.
To never let our high school

Will be our wordly mission.
We hope to turn out lawyers,

And wouldn't it be great to have

So we hope that you'll remember

juniors sound off

JON GREENWALD
on student government: "Student government gives each student a chance to participate in the planning of his own activities. It allows him to express his feelings about the school's teachers and students."

BERT WEINER
on the driving age: "Due to the immaturity of most persons under 18, the driving age should be raised to 18. The high accident rate of the 16-18 year-old group should be enough evidence for state legislators and the voters to raise the driving age to 18."

KAREN ZUKOR
on the voting age: "The voting age should be lowered to 18 because an 18 year-old is very much a part of and a citizen of the United States."

DAN COOPER
on a state controlled lottery: "I think the state-controlled lottery should be controlled by the state. If it isn't state controlled, then it isn't a state controlled lottery. Moreover, I'm only for state control."

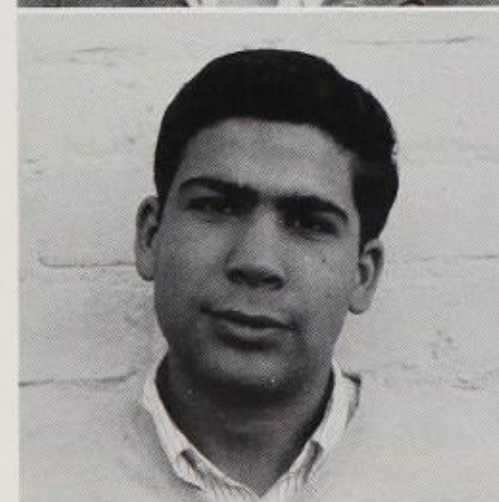

BOB WARSAW
on Pay TV: "Pay TV is a free enterprise and shouldn't be repudiated. There should be no reason to reject a free enterprise which we are guaranteed."

JOAN FRIEDMAN
on girls furthering their education: "It is necessary for girls to develop a special career and thus further their education. It is a good idea to have a certain training in one field so that if it is necessary to get a job, you will be qualified to handle one."

CRAIG SAFAN
on student government: "Student government is one of the greatest incentive builders at Beverly. People all want to be looked up to as a leader of others and this desire makes us try harder for better grades and better, more sincere personalities. I believe too much emphasis is placed on popularity rather than on merit."

TOM LINDEN
on the driving age: "I think the driving age should be lowered to fourteen for boys and raised to twenty-three for girls because girls hold up traffic, cause accidents, and make a real nebish of themselves."

sophomores sound off

ROBYN BRISKIN
on Pay TV: "I'm against Pay TV because it would take away my right to watch free TV. I figure, 'Why pay for something that I can get free.'"

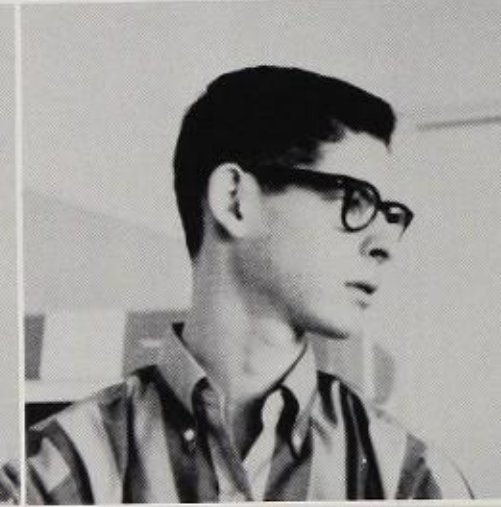

JOE SCHNIEDERS
on the draft: "I think the draft should be eliminated because the one coming in from that window is too cool."

ALLAN CALLNER
on the voting age: "If a person can give his life for his country at 18, he is old enough to choose his leader."

KATHY DELLAR
on the driving age: "One should get a driver's license at 16. My theory is that if one can drop out of school at 16, he should be able to drive."

VICKI MOLIN
on girls furthering their educations: "Most girls go to college to meet men and pursue a career as a housewife."

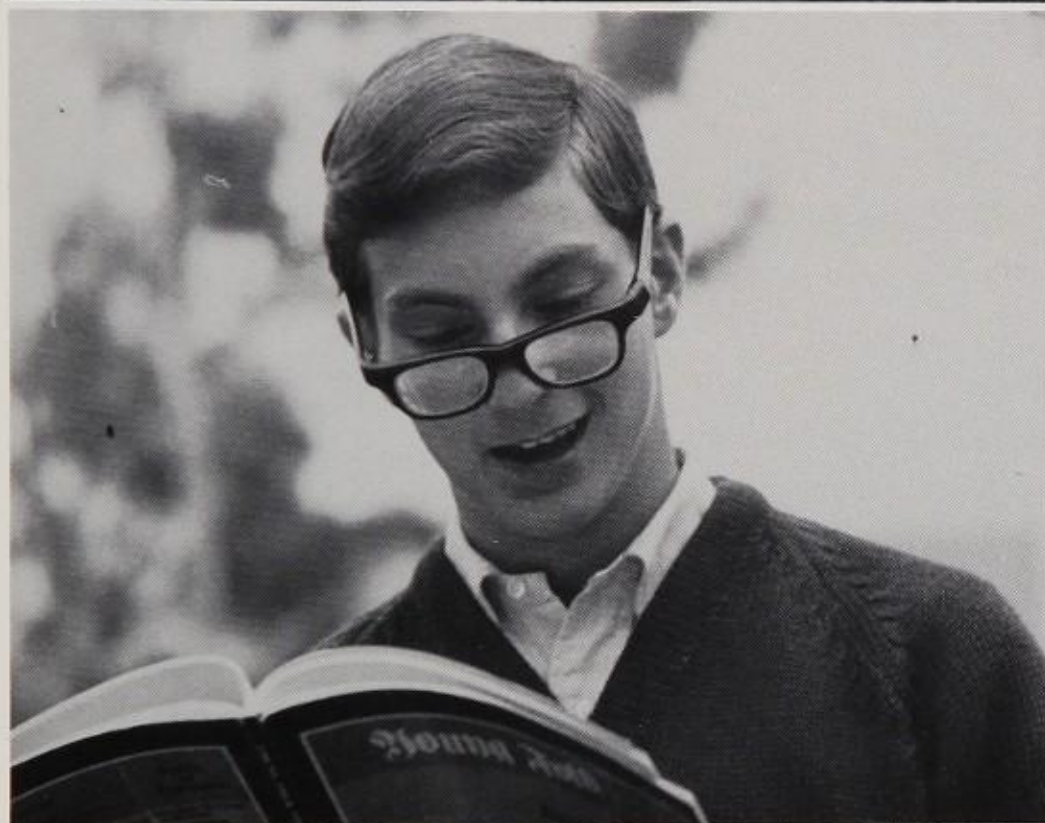

NATE SILVERMAN
on the voting age: "I'm in favor of lowering the voting age to 18 because an 18 year-old should be as qualified to vote as a 21 year-old."

SUE FISHER
on student government: "Freshmen and sophomores lack participation in student government because incoming freshmen and sophomores are not concerned. There is a lack of effort of upper classmen to interest lower classmen in school affairs."

RON BASS
on a state controlled lottery: "I'm against a state controlled lottery because it would benefit private, not public, concerns."

freshmen sound off

DOUG KALES
on Pay TV: "Outlawing Pay TV is unconstitutional. Regardless of its merits, it should be given a chance. If Pay TV is banned, you could just ban any new business that wants to get a start."

SHERRY TAMPKIN
on the voting age: "I would not suggest lowering the voting age to 18. At 18 most people are not fully aware of what they are voting for and why. A great many people at that age are too influenced by their elders."

MARK FELDMAN
on Pay TV: "I'm all for Pay TV. My motto is let's not watch any commercials and let's have Pay TV."

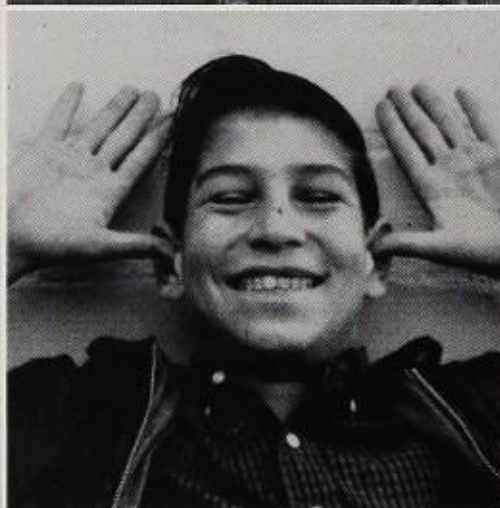

DEBBIE GLUSKER
on the driving age: "The driving age should be lowered to 14. In Texas one can drive at 14, so why shouldn't I drive at 14 in California?"

JAY JUDSON
on a first interpretation of Beverly: "My breakfast was in my throat. I was sick, and it seemed like a different experience. It's sort of crazy and something new."

LARRY ACHEATEL
on the driving age: "The driving age should be lowered to 14. Teenagers are more responsible these days, I hope, and besides I'm 14! Driving would give more kids a feeling of responsibility."

ELLYN FOOTLIK
on a first interpretation of Beverly: "-----" (censored)

RONNIE SACKS
on a state controlled lottery: "Since I'm pretty shifty at the gambling table, I'm all for a state controlled lottery. I don't just know what lottery is, but from what I've heard it will give me more chances to roll my dice."

The Varsity football team with many glorious moments; an almost glorious team.

When the dust settled after the 1964 Varsity Football season, there remained the stalwart image of a sharp looking and most impressive Norman team. An above average backfield comprised of seniors Ken Adlam, Steve Fader, Roger Gordon, and Warren Tetley, brought many moments of excitement and heartbreak to spirited Beverly rooters. Dana Huff, Leo Lesser, Ron Feldman, and All-League tackle Greg Finley anchored the formidable line.

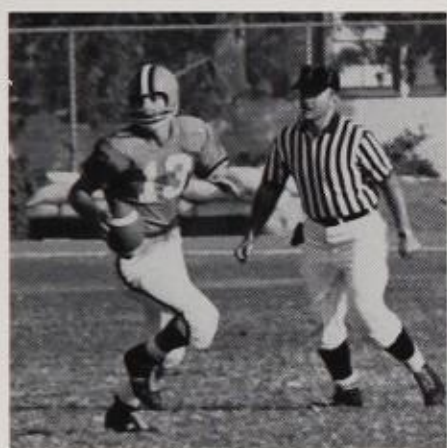

In the opener the Sabolmen were able to surprise the powerful CIF-bound Lawndale eleven by employing an explosive attack to stage a gallant second half rally, though dropping to defeat by the score of 34-19. On their own field in the next two appearances, the Normans were able to fare better as they soundly trounced military-minded Harvard and tough West. Thus entering league competition with a 2-1 mark, the orange and white bumped into particularly strong teams from Leuzinger, Inglewood, North, and Morningside. In their last game of the campaign against the Centaurs, the Normans were able to outplay and hold Culver to a scoreless tie for three and one-half quarters before succumbing 14-0 in the last three minutes. Although Beverly lost "The Big Game," they played inspired ball and concluded the season with a high brand of football.

BEE Football conquers three adversaries; Prepares for Big V.

When Coach Chris Flanagan remarked once after a game, "For a while you guys looked like the best Bee team in history," he didn't realize he was summing up the entire season. Sporting a good record of three wins and five defeats, the squad showed flashes of greatness as evidenced by its victories. Even though the illness of greatly respected Chris Flanagan hindered the development of the team, Coaches Hal Sieling, Fred Erdhaus, and Pat Wilson took up the Bee-men and brought from them the successful season of '64. Among the outstanding players were quarterback Jim Heumann, half-back Howdy Kabrins, defensive specialist and captain Dave Gold, and lineman Dave Eagle. The win versus Harvard was a 19-0 pasting, while Inglewood was overcome by only a scant one point, 7-6. Culver City, the Norbabs' cross-town rival, was defeated 12-7 to culminate the Bee campaign triumphantly.

Co-captain John Vos desperately pursues a West ball carrier.

Highlighted by many last-minute scoring drives and razzle-dazzle football, the Cee gridgers completed a moderately successful season, winning their first game in league since the team was formed in 1960. With notables Irv Zakheim at quarterback, John Vos at halfback, and Phil Schwartz anchoring the line, the gridgers kept the outcome of each game in doubt until the final moments. This season of experience, under the coaching of Richard Schreiber, should provide high-caliber Varsity players in the near future.

Formidable linemen for the Cees were Frank Rose and co-captain Phil Schwartz.

BOTTOM ROW: John Allen, Captain Norton Wisdom, Larry Sheridan.

Ending their non-league action with a 5-2 record, the aquatic Varsity entered the conference race with an Inglewood Tourney Consolation Crown tucked under their belt. The league championship also could have been the squad's possession if it had not been that the orange and white were playing in the same league as El Segundo, a perennial CIF power. Excluding the Eagle drownings, the Puffer-coached water polo squad was able to sweep through the Sky League schedule, losing only once to Morningside and finishing in second place. Leading the team were All-League First Team members Larry Sheridan and Norton Wisdom, and All-League Second Team members Chuck Bergman and Jeff Peters.

Bee Water Poloers splash their way to another league championship

The Norbabes opened their season on a sour note as they crumbled to defeat in three successive non-league matches before squeaking by Glendale 15-14. As the league season began, the squad evidently had not jelled, as they were beaten twice in four attempts. Then, reaching the midpoint of conference competition, the Puffermen sprang into action, capturing four in a row, including an upending of El Segundo in the final game which gained Beverly a tie in the Sky League championship.

Cross Country Takes Third

This year for the first time Century City's towers form a background in space as cross countryman, John Isen, runs at Rancho.

Getting off to a flying start by copping their first four meets, Beverly's cross country team nabbed third place for the second straight time this year behind North and Morningside. The third place finish of Captain Dave Goldman in league finals and the nomination of Dan Shirn to the all-league team highlighted the harriers' season. Coach George Egan has good reason to be optimistic about next year's team as six of this year's varsity lettermen will be back grinding out the mileage at Rancho again.

Displaying some fine individual performances, the Norman Varsity quintet fought hard to cop a well-deserved third place. All-Leaguer Sandy Marks was the leading scorer and rebounder, while Warren Tetley played inspired basketball in his third year of Varsity competition. Sophomore backcourtmen Ralph Punaro and Irv Zakheim and freshman forward Alex Gamble sparked the court kings, while insuring promise for the future. Jim Hughes was the scrapping sixth man. Seniors Ron Feldman, Larry Schwartz, and Gene Seltzer performed well in the clutch. Juniors Burt Sobelman and Mike Sokol are another reason that next season's squad should be a strong contender for the League crown.

Varsity Basketball

Finishing third in the Sky League and barely missing a berth in the CIF play-offs, the 1964-65 edition of the Norman basketball team found itself on the short end of the score in the first five games. At this point in the season, Coach Chuck Reilly brought up from Jayvee ranks Frosh forward Alex Gamble and Soph guards Ralph Punaro and Irv Zakheim. These three were able to generate a secondary scoring punch to go along with the primary Norman attack of center Sandy Marks and forward Warren Tetley. With these additions the Beverly quintet was able to grab a fourth place in the Beverly Hills Invitational Tournament, knocking off Fillmore and Bellflower before falling to the number one team in CIF, Redondo. In the first half of the league season each of the five games was decided by no more than eight points, but the cagers could do no better than garner a 3-2 record. This mark was achieved by cutting down Leuzinger, Inglewood, and Morningside, the first two in overtime. Defeats were inflicted in the league opener by Culver City and in the Normans' third encounter, in which the locals gave a fine effort before dropping to 6'11" Ron Taylor and his Saxon accomplices. The second round of play saw the Normans, having a golden opportunity at one point to overtake North for the league lead, slide to third as they chalked up another 3-2 mark. Fine team efforts were put together as Beverly defeated Culver City, Leuzinger, and third place challenger, Inglewood. Coach Reilly awaits next season hopefully for, although he loses All-Sky League member, Sandy Marks, and three-year letterman, Warren Tetley, through graduation, he retains guards Punaro and Zakheim for two more years and forward Gamble for three more. Perhaps these players will be the makings of a Sky League powerhouse!

Ups and downs marked the course of the 1965 Junior Varsity basketball season. Opening with five straight victories over Lawndale, Santa Monica, Warren, Culver City, and El Segundo, the team entered league competition with high spirits and a fairly sound basis for optimism. After elevating court leaders Alex Gamble, Ralph Punaro, and Irv Zakheim to Varsity status, the squad was definitely weakened. During this portion of the season the cagers, led by Grea Gilford, John Hammil, Terry Speizer, and Rich Weston, were able to overcome Aviation, Lawndale for the second time, Morningside, Lennox, and Leuzinger. Coach Gerald Carpenter guided a winning JV team which has high hopes for next year's basketball season.

Equipped with a well-balanced attack containing height and shooting prowess, the Bee Basketball squad enjoyed a good overall season highlighted by the Torrance Bee Tourney Championship. Guards Gary Tobey and Bruce Meade, center Steve Horowitz, and forwards Al Sagat and Neil Borin were the usual starting five and their ability to work together added greatly to the team's strength. Major victories were registered against West, South, and Morningside. Although the Norbabe did not place high in the league standings, they were able to capture eleven out of thirteen non-league tilts.

Led by Jim Heumann, the Cee basketball squad gained valuable experience while winning eleven of seventeen tilts. The fast break proved to be the cagers' main weapon as Dore Gilbert and Mike Stern teamed with Heumann to trouble their adversaries. Every encounter proved to be a tough one for the hoopsters as inconsistency prevented Coach Schreiber's running frosh from grabbing a better position in league standings.

Varsity Wrestlers build for future

Opening the campaign with victories over Harvard and Santa Monica, the Varsity grapplers were less fortunate in league competition. The matmen were finally able to defeat Culver City in their final match of the season to grab their only conference win, 42-13. Lyn Konheim was Beverly's only league champion and he then proceeded to the CIF finals. However, Mike Tobey was able to garner third place in the highly competitive Simi Valley Tournament and also fought to a well-earned second place in the league finals. Mark Disman and Guy Finley also nabbed second places in league. Coach Tom Gutman eagerly awaits next season with returning Varsity lettermen Phil Swartz, Steve Levine, and Nate Halprin. With assistance from JV wrestlers, heavy-weight Ross Snyder and lightweight Ken Swartz, next year's Varsity wrestling squad should be a top Sky League contender.

Fielding one of the top squads in Beverly diamond history, the Norman nine, under the tutelage of Coach Chris Flanagan, was well on its way to capturing a CIF berth. The horsehiders were led by veteran pitchers Stu Sandler, Steve Fader, and All-Leaguer Sandy Marks who combined a no-hitter against Hollywood in the first game of the season, 3-0. Bob Murphy, a four-year Varsity letterman and All-League choice, smashed three hits in leading the batmen to their second straight victory over Torrance, 6-2. At shortstop, Lou Mellini proved to be very effective. Plugging the second base gap was Ralph Punaro while newcomer Scott Lundbergh handled the first base chores. Strong-armed outfielders Robin Allen, Jim Hughes, and Kirk Gregory provided necessary support. Warren Tetley caught Varsity pitchers for the fourth year. With the needed experience and talent, the Norman Varsity baseball team was a formidable Sky League foe.

The athletes of Junior Varsity Baseball produced a good season.

Garnering a tie with a strong Hollywood team and beating Torrance, 8-2, Coach Chuck Reilly's Junior Varsity baseball squad was led by standout pitcher Larry Miller and fiery outfielder Buzzy Mintz. Giving valuable assistance were spray-hitting outfielder Al Epstein, third-baseman Gary Tobey, and left fielder Marty Cottler. Freshman flingers Jim Heumann, Gary Girard, and Ron Zolkover teamed with Miller to give the JV's a pitching edge over most opponents. Improving with each game, the baseballers overcame their lack of depth with determination and gave a bright outlook for future Varsity teams.

Demolishing Hart (64-49), Lennox (87-20), Lawndale (79-32), and Sky League contender Leuzinger (70-43), the Varsity track team was off to a quick start at the gun. Roger Gordon, Mike Fracter, and George Stanbury were outstanding in the sprints while Wayne Liebman provided strength in the quarter-mile. David Goldman excelled in the mile, and in the newly initiated two-mile run John Isen and Dan Schirn attempted to crack the ten-minute barrier for new school records. The cinder-men were well-equipped in the field events with Barry Caren, shot put, Chuck Wolcott, pole vault; Howard Waldow and Mike Miles, high jump; and Jeff Sperling, Steve Lieberman and Fracter, long jump. Early season highlights were Fracter's 10.2 second hundred yards, Wolff's 2:03.4 minute half-mile, and Liebman's 52.6 quarter-mile. Loaded with top performing juniors, Coaches George Egan and Joe Sabol can rightfully anticipate another successful campaign.

THE WATCHTOWER

Publishing the 1965 WATCHTOWER has been a satisfying pleasure. I speak not only for myself, but also for an efficient staff which has labored with inspiration and determination. I am sure the staff, our devoted advisor, Mrs. Arnita Albright, and I will always remember the joy of hard work and real accomplishment. We sincerely hope that we have successfully interpreted the challenge for the future that our generation faces and trust that this book will serve as a reminder that we are concerned with converting today's theories into tomorrow's realities.
